Drive In line-up 'death trap'

The problems caused by line-ups to the St. Albert Drive-In Theatre was brought to the attention of St. Albert's Town Council at their meeting on Monday, July 8.

A letter from Mr. J. E. Wilson was received for consideration of council in which Mr. Wilson reported that three groups of guests to his home reported difficulty in getting past the Drive-In. He noted in his letter that "you have a potential death trap" with the line-up approaching the already dangerous curve on Gervais Road.

Major Gibbon suggested that the area could be posted "no parking or stopping" which would then put the onus on the individuals and the Drive-In Theatre. The mayor also suggested that the owners would put up the costs for an area to the north of the street for off-street parking and waiting. "There is a real danger at that blind corner by the drive-in. Fortunately most people have been fairly careful. It is still very dangerous for people who do not know the area."

Councillor Hudson expressed his feeling that it is about time that council get a little tough. "We should inform the owners that we are not going to take anything less than a workable solution." Coun. Threlson echoed this and stated that unless something is done the town should get tough and do something about it.

Forty-four Reserve officers from across Canada are at historic Fort Frontenac in Kingston for two weeks taking the Militia Officers Staff Course (MOSC), the highest course available in a Reservist's career. Although most of the course is theoretical work done in classrooms, every opportunity is taken to hold classes outdoors, such as this syndicate beside an ancient cannon in the Fort's courtyard. Left to right are Major Pat Murphy, syndicate leader; Major Norm Lynch, Edmonton Militia District Headquarters, 11 Goodridge Dr., St. Albert, Alta.; Major Steve Kavanagh, Camerons of Canada, 447 Borbank St., Winnipeg, Man.; and Captain Colin Marmo, 30th Field Artillery Regiment RCA, Ottawa, Ont.

St. Albert Air Cadets set scholarship record

Capt. L. D. Gualt, 533 Squadron, Royal Canadian Air Cadets, St. Albert, reported this week that cadets of St. Albert Squadron are scattered across Canada and one is overseas, pursuing a variety of summer activities. He stated that the squadron is most pleased with the number of scholarships received by their members. "The dedication of these young people, going after and attaining these scholarships, is a credit to the cadets, the volunteers, and their officers." Nine cadets have received scholarships and this believed to be a record high-total from any single squadron in Alberta.

F/Sgt. G. Bondarevich and F/Sgt. R. Gagnier are on powered aircraft flying scholarships. The program lasts for six weeks and upon completion, the pair will earn pilot's licenses. LAC B. Bilan and Sgt. R. Brunelle, on six week glider flying scholarships, will receive glider pilot's licenses upon completion. The program is held in CFB Borden in Manitoba.

W.O. 11 G. Howie is off to England for six weeks, all expenses paid. The exchange visit is based on a provincial quota, for cadets who have rendered outstanding service. Please Turn To Page 2

Heritage Park slated for Rec Board Study

Councillor Hudson presented a series of motions in an effort to resolve the immediate fates of several historically significant buildings in St. Albert at the Town Council meeting held on Monday, July 8.

His first motion asked that the tearing down of the Belcourt home, slated for demolition in the near future, not be carried out until such a time as the town staff in co-operation with the Historical Society have the opportunity to research its authenticity as the original NWMP barracks in St. Albert.

Mr. J. Parker, of the St. Albert Historical Society stated at the meeting that he was reassured that the site on #3 St. Anne Street is indeed the original building. "There is pretty strong evidence . . . the measurements of the Belcourt house correspond very closely with the measurements of the NWMP barracks constructed in 1888. According to the information I have received, again we rely upon oral history, we find that Mr. Belcourt moved the house with very little alteration to construct a dwelling." Charles Belcourt is supposed to have purchased the building in 1939 and turned it into a residence.

Councillor Hudson's second motion dealt with the MacKinney store which is unauthenticated at this time. The motion was worded that staff in co-operation with the Historical Society ascertain the authenticity of the MacKinney store at their earliest possible convenience. Coun. Threlson noted that the time constraint on the MacKinney store building was a definite factor. The building will have to be removed from its present Please Turn To Page 2

Town sets mill rate - businessmen hit

St. Albert residents will pay more taxes this year despite the removal of 28 mills for school foundation program formerly levied on residential homes. Business/Commercial properties do not receive the 28 mill relief and face a hefty 11 mill increase over last year.

St. Albert residents will again have a split mill rate and will be levied 62.2 mills for Protestants and 63.9 mills for Catholics. Two years ago there was a five-mill differential in favour of Catholic ratepayers, last year the rate was the same for both.

Total assessment of Real Property for taxation purposes is $42,863,922, the total assessment of non-taxable property, subject to a grant in lieu of taxes is $317,320. Thus one mill yields about $43,000 this year.

Average assessed value of homes in St. Albert is $7,500, according to Chief Administrator Bob Byron and using a figure of 63 mills (averaging the split rate) this means the taxpayer pays roughly 63 dollars on every thousand of assessment. On the average assessment of $7,500, multiply 7.5 thousand by 63 for a tax levy of $472.50.

Many homes built in the last two years will of course have a higher than average assessment and on a home assessed at $10,000 for example, the tax would be $630.

The bylaw authorizing the several mill rates of taxation was passed at regular council meeting Monday evening, but the 1974 budget has not been made public and the Gazette was told it is still in rough draft form. Therefore it remains to be seen how the municipal taxes are being spent.

The bylaw gives a total figure from the estimates of Expenditure for 1974 of four million, 159 thousand, two hundred and one dollars, broken down as follows: (Figures have the 1973 tax bylaw in brackets):

Municipal expenditures - $2,669,320. ($1,807,894.), Debenture Debt Charges - $306,602. ($276,535.), Education $1,149,206. ($1,437,698.); Hospital and Health $34,073. (nil).

St. Albert helps re-elect Lambert

Marcel Lambert was returned as Edmonton West M.P. for his seventh term and again received a majority of the St. Albert vote.

Upon his entrance at a victory party held at the Sahara Restaurant the crowd roared and cheered their approval, shouting "speech - speech."

"It's fine for me to stand up and take the cheers to-night," said Marcel, "but if it were not for the people in this room who worked, I couldn't stand up here. We ran scared in this election - took nothing for granted, and our people worked very very hard. I thank you all."

But something disappointing happened in Edmonton West today - a poor turnout, and this is reflected in the increase in opposition votes.

In a democracy a strong and virile vote at the polls is essential - we did not have it this time, and the result is reflected, he said.

Mrs. Lambert was with him and they enjoyed mingling and chatting with the large crowd.

Summer is the time for repairs to track and other facilities on the CN Railroad. A crew was spotted at work replacing piles on the trestle crossing the Sturgeon River by Lions Park last week. A number of youngsters at the park gathered to watch the massive pile-driver at work.

location by August, to allow the property owner now living in the house to build a new one this year. Councillor Hudson's third motion asked that the Heritage Park proposal be put on an early agenda of the Parks and Recreation Board. Mr. Parker had referred to the possibility of locating a historical park including the 'historical buildings' of St. Albert within the town. This proposal would insure that these structures would be located in the town and that they would be saved from destruction. Coun. Thronson asked Mr. Parker to indicate the amount of space needed for a historical park. Mr. Parker stated that he could not see why the Belcourt House could not be left where it is and put to some functional use. He also stated that it would be adequate and appropriate that the old buildings be located in that area where a great deal of the history of St. Albert actually took place.

In response to a suggestion by Councillor Lukay that the MacKinney store be relocated beside the Belcourt House, Councillor Hudson summarized his position by saying, "the intent here is not to deal with the specific placement of the MacKinney Store. We do not know if it is authentic. My motion is to deal with a park for all the old buildings in the town which are historically significant. I think with the age of our town, through the Historical Society, we may ultimately have 20 such buildings. I don't think we can place the MacKinney Store helter-skelter, just because we have a police station down there. I think we should research the situation." Mr. Parker noted that if we are to salvage and save St. Albert's identity we must go back to the beginnings of the town. Council voted five to nothing in favour of Councillor Hudson's motion that the new Parks and Recreation Board research the feasibility of the Heritage Park proposal.

School District 3 receives grant for innovative project

An RCMP project of the St. Albert Catholic School District has received a provincial grant of $250 in the way of discretionary assistance as opposed to dollar for dollar matching grants.

Trustee Sylvia Walsh, who is spearheading the project undertaken in November last year, was delighted that the application through the St. Albert RCMP Centennial Committee was approved, and said that the money will certainly be out to good use, as work on the project will be going forward throughout the balance of the year.

Basic aim of the project is to establish a permanent information file on the NWMP and the RCMP which can be added to systematically in the future for the use of students and teachers.

"The idea was really an offshoot of the RCMP Student Essay Contest held last year," said Mrs. Walsh, "when the need for more materials on the Force, suitable for student and school use became quite apparent." Doing research for their essays, students also became aware of how much historical material was yet to be recorded and classified for ready reference. When Mrs. Walsh, board representative on the local RCMP Centennial Committee approached the Board with the suggestion that a project be undertaken to provide such reference material, she received the wholehearted support of the trustees, and went to work, along with Robert Chaput of the Instructional Materials Centre at Vital Grandin school.

These two people began the ground work, obtaining assistance from Ottawa, the Glenbow Foundation and local people in their search for written materials, audio-visual tapes, photographs and reproductions of old photographs, which would be suitable for inclusion in a school curriculum for all grade levels.

They are working on one basic unit, but at present are keeping 10 copies of all materials. The complete file will be assembled in such a way that it can be duplicated.

Some material is already in use in the schools, and it is hoped the file will be completed in January of next year.

Objectives are threefold: to make students and teachers aware of the 100th anniversary of the arrival of the North West Mounted Police in the territory now known as the Province of Alberta; to make students and teachers aware of the importance of the role played by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in the opening of the area for settlement and the development of the Province; and to enable teachers and students to readily and frequently enrich their regular classroom programs, particularly in the area of Social Studies dealing with Alberta's history, the history of the Force, and the present day role of the Force.

Researching the history includes doing interviews with veteran members of the force, sending questionnaires to various libraries and resource centres, and writing letters to many individual and collective sources. A major part of the work is codifying and filing all of the material.

All aspects of present day police work are also being included, such as Police Service Dogs, White-collar Crime, Crime Detection Labs., Northern work, the Marine and Air Divisions, C.I.B. and Drug control.

When the file is completed to the end of 1974 it will be made available to anyone in the community who may wish to make use of it and such institutions as the Father Lacombe Museum and the St. Albert Library. As new material is added over the years, this also will be made widely available.

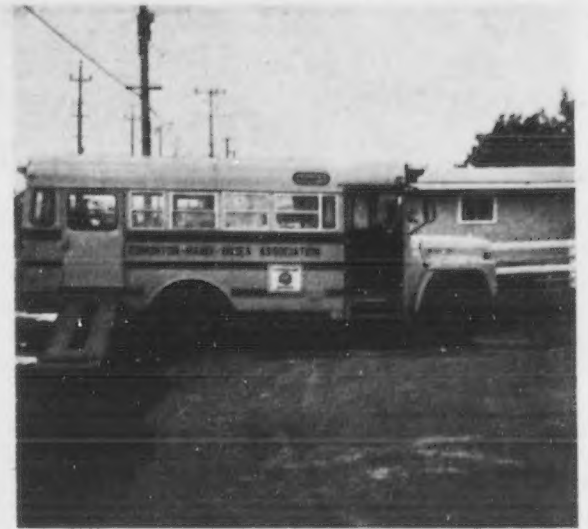

Festival to support bus purchase

The St. Albert Knights of Columbus are staging a Klondike Beer Festival in the Arena on July 12 and 13 to raise money for the purchase of a handi-bus for the handicapped. Admission is $2.50 and advanced tickets are available from all St. Albert service stations.

"The Festival is right after the election and just before Klondike Days so there will be some happy people there and also some sad ones," says Mr. Bert Cyr, spokesman for the Knights of Columbus. Whatever frame of mind one is in, the 'fests' promise to be a lot of fun and are for a worthy cause. Mr. Bob Arnold of CJCA radio station will be on hand as master of ceremonies and the 1974 Klondike Dollar Girl, Wendy Jewell, will also be there. Entertainment for both nights will be provided by the Capris who are heralded to be a very entertaining group of musicians. The St. Albert Silver Slippers dance group will be performing both evenings with 'Klondike-style' dancing. In addition, the Knights of Columbus will be awarding 100 silver dollars each night as door prizes.

The doors open and beer service commences at 6 p.m. both nights. Entertainment begins at 8 and goes until 1 a.m. on Friday, July 12, until 12 midnight on Saturday, July 13. Food will be on sale during the 'fests.'

The Knights of Columbus have been recognized provincially for their earlier efforts which resulted in the purchase of a handi-bus. That bus has been found to be inadequate to provide the extensive service required and thus the purchase of a second handi-bus became necessary. Handicapped children are bused to various schools in the Edmonton area.

St. Albert Knights of Columbus are sponsoring a Klondike Beer Festival on July 12 and 13 with the proceeds to go toward the purchase of a handi-bus for the handicapped. The bus is similar to the one pictured above and will be used to transport handicapped to and from school.

Letters to the Editor

Regulate Developer's Profits

The Editor:

A great number of citizens are depending on their elected M.P.'s to solve most of society's problems. Twenty thousand people in St. Albert will be depending on one elected member in Edmonton West to do something about problems such as inflation, excessive profiteering and consumer gouging. Can one man possibly do anything about these problems? Evidence proves this quite unlikely. It is quite likely though, that a lot of our present day problems remain unsolved because too many people depend on too few individuals to solve too many problems. A partial solution or a start to a solution of our problems should therefore be sought for on a local level. The citizens of St. Albert have just been presented with an excellent opportunity to do something about one of society's problems, mainly excessive profiteering.

Our town council has received a development proposal to subdivide 1728 acres of land northeast of St. Albert. When this subdivision is approved and completed it will result in the average working man paying from $16,000.00 to $20,000.00 for a building lot. It will also result in a profit of between 250 per cent and 300 per cent for the developer. Could one consider this to be excessive profiteering? Most developers would claim that profits cannot be regulated in a free enterprise system, why not?

Before town council approves this subdivision the developer should meet certain conditions which town council would have the right to impose.

1) The developer should disclose the purchase price of the land, including cost of interest on borrowed money, overheads and all associated costs for the duration of ownership.

2) To the first condition add a reasonable compensation (perhaps 15 per cent per annum) for the risks involved.

3) These two conditions would establish a fair value on the land.

The Developer should then be allowed to subdivide the land according to further conditions set out by town council.

1) The Town will pay the developer established value for land dedicated for parks, roadways and services.

2) The developer will put in all the required services, roads, sidewalks, and parks on a competitive tender basis.

3) The Town will allow the developer a reasonable profit of 15 per cent - 20 per cent over cost for co-ordinating the required contractors to carry out the necessary subdivision work.

4) Allow the developer a reasonable real estate fee of 10 per cent for putting the lots on market.

5) The original cost of the land plus all associated costs and profits divided over approximately 5,000 building lots would place the cost of a single lot at $4,000 - $6,000.00.

6) Finally the Town's cost of purchasing the land for parks and roadways could be equally distributed according to the number of lots and recovered from the buyer. This cost would be in the vicinity of $2,800 to $3,500. Prospective citizens of St. Albert could purchase a building lot at a maximum cost of $9,000 and we will have partially aided in solving a national problem of spiralling land costs.

Mitch Bizon,
Mission Park.

Praised by Mayor

The Editor:

I would like to thank the citizens of St. Albert for the excellent co-operation shown by them during the recent water problems encountered by the Town. It was almost 100 per cent.

As I have already explained to a number of people, the water shortage was a particular embarrassment to me due to a new two-million-gallon reservoir which was supposed to be filled and on stream in May of this year. To my chagrin, I found this was not the case when the actual water problem was brought to my attention. The water shortage, in my estimation, should not have happened in the manner or intensity it did.

In February of 1972, the Town received an interim report from consultants respecting steps to be taken regarding water supply. The recommendations as presented for the 1973 water supply were implemented.

April 30, 1973 Committee of Council discussed a draft report and approved it in principle. July 17, 1973 by letter of transmittal the final report entitled "St. Albert Water System Study" was received by the Town. Most of the recommendations received were approved by the Town with the remainder to be implemented over a period of time.

The two items of major concern to the people of St. Albert are:

1. Construction of an additional two-million-gallon reservoir for 1974. This has been completed and, I might add, is filled.

2. The construction of a second water line from Edmonton by spring of 1975. Negotiations are underway for the construction of this line.

The water system study is available for perusal at the St. Albert Library, Town Hall, and all Council members have copies.

While the Town is still maintaining the outside water restrictions, I assure you the reservoirs are filled to capacity and in all probability will remain that way.

I also thank the Edmonton news media for the assistance they gave the Town during the water shortage as they helped in every manner they could when contacted.

If any person has doubts about the Town's ability to supply water because of contacts with one of the few prophets of doom in the Town, I ask you to consult the water system study or contact myself.

R. M. Gibson, Mayor,
Town of St. Albert.

Soccer people praised

Dear Coach Al Findlay and people of St. Albert Community:

On behalf of the Medley Minor Soccer Association, the Panther Soccer team and myself, I would once again like to thank you Al, your wife and the St. Albert community for the very kind way in which we were hosted on the weekend of June 15 and 16 by players and parents of the St. Albert Mite central soccer team.

It is kindness such as we saw in St. Albert that makes the whole minor sport program go. We enjoyed ourselves immensely both on and off the field and met many new friends, and although the scores were a little one-sided our loss was not complete as the lessons learned were very rewarding.

Hopefully we will get together again soon, so until then we remain your friends and partners in sport to the north.

John Laflour,
Coach,

The Vancouver Sun

"Mind you, she was somewhat relieved when I explained "The Middle East" did not mean the area between Alberta and Ottawa . . ."

Allarco annexation approved by L.A.B.

The Gazette received the board order Tuesday from the Local Authorities Board approving Allarco's application of four quarters of land to the North-East boundaries.

The board order in brief outlined the reasons for the approval of the annexation; and we quote:

- 1) The lands are suitable and desirable for residential development having been adopted for this purpose by the Edmonton Regional Planning Commission; The Town of St. Albert and the MD of Sturgeon and the Planning Commission have agreed to this concept for the past 17 years and still do.
- 2) The lands can be serviced economically by: (a) the Town's new sewer trunk, (b) the Town's expanded water supply facilities, (c) Storm water drainage into the Sturgeon River, (d) the Town's expanded sewage treatment facilities, (e) extensions to existing utility service lines.

Allarco submitted a conceptual outline plan for the annexation area to the Town Council in December 1970 and received approval thereto in principle.

Allarco agreed to supply school sites to the boards at no cost pending approval of a development agreement with the town.

The Town informed Allarco and the L.A.B. at the hearing on February 12 and 13, 1973 that they expected problems in meeting water supply demands when they reached a population figure over 17,000. (Today's population figure is 19,418).

The City of Edmonton also expects that in 1974/75 it will have difficulty in maintaining adequate water supplies for contracting municipalities such as St. Albert until its new south-west water treatment (Tervillier) plant comes into operation.

In opposing the annexation the Town submitted at the hearing on February 12 and 13, 1973 that there were 81 vacant serviced lots and 1,300 acres undeveloped land vacant at December 31, 1972 and these would be equivalent to an 11 year's supply for the Town. The order states "this, to the Board, seems an inadequate long range supply of land for residential development."

The lengthy statement of the Local Authorities Board's reasoning in supporting the annexation runs to 6 and one-half closely typed foolscap pages.

It comes after 16 months of deliberation and is effective January 1st, 1975.

The Town and M.D. Sturgeon have no appeal on the annexation order but St. Albert can exercise control by refusing a developer's agreement until they are prepared to have the area developed, MLA Ernie Jamison told the Gazette yesterday.

The municipalities are in a particularly strong position in this respect if the development will create a hardship in providing utility services, Mr. Jamison said.

Legion gives $1400 to Hospital

Prizes in the St. Albert branch Royal Canadian Legion raffle were awarded at the Legion Hall Saturday evening June 29. Part of the proceeds of the project will go to the Sturgeon General Hospital on the purchase of a Ventilator attachment to the anaesthetic machine in the operating room. Used for control of inspiration and expiration when a patient is undergoing surgery, the ventilator automatically compensates for changes in compliance and resistance. The Legion Ladies Auxiliary had previously contributed $300 for the ventilator, and the Legion will donate the balance, in the neighborhood of $1,400.

Mr. Colin Ford of the Sturgeon General Hospital Board was present to make the raffle draws and Mr. Joe Diugosz of 12420 - 96 Street was the big winner. His ticket, sold by Paul Roy of St. Albert, who also got a prize, was worth $1,271. David Lee of 10 Malmoe Avenue, St. Albert won $271, and ticket seller was his dad, Wally Lee, a Legion member. J. Meaza of 12A Sorrel Crescent, St. Albert, won $27.10 and the seller's name was not recorded. Ron Bartlett of 11217 - 103 Street also won $27.10 on a ticket sold by Rudy Schriber of St. Albert Legion.

The balance of the raffle proceeds, which Chairman Reg Bremner estimates will be about $2,000, will go to the building fund for the new Legion Hall.

Food outlets inadequate says local resident

"St. Albert needs another food outlet in opposition to Safeway. I paid 25¢ each for four apples this morning," said Mr. Rene Martin. "Which was an increase in one week of more than 20 per cent, and that's the last straw - unreasonable!"

"Safeway needs competition here - and I know from shopping experience in Edmonton and elsewhere in this province that IGA is the store to provide it," he said. Mr. Martin is a senior citizen and for years he and his wife have shopped together, and with very sharp eye on prices. Mr. Martin looks after the fruit purchases and he was not happy with the grapefruit situation either. If Safeway can put grapefruit on sale one week at 10¢ for $1.00, how is it that the very next week they put them out at six for 89¢.

Going back to apples, Mr. Martin also pointed out to the Gazette that it isn't the growers who are responsible and referred to a picture and article in the Free Press showing a lady feeding shovelful of apples to her pigs, because all she could get for them was six cents per pound, which was less than the cost of production.

Mr. Martin, who farmed in Camrose area before coming to St. Albert, was also irritated that when the price of pigs went down to the farmer, the price of pork never went down.

"How is it," he said, "that in Fort Nelson there are four grocery stores, including the Bay and IGA, and by watching the prices from store to store, you can make a real saving. And yet a town like St. Albert has only one food store?"

The Gazette has had many calls and comments in recent weeks on the inadequacy of one major food outlet to serve the population.

Mervin K. Durling, who resides at 43 Belmont Drive, is the winner of the 10-speed bicycle awarded by the Dairy Queen in St. Albert. The draw was held on June 30, but Mr. Durling did not find out that he was the winner until he got back from Spokane this week. "I just got a single ticket and I don't know what I am going to do with the bike," said Mr. Durling who is really pleased with his windfall.

The spirit of 74 is alive and well in Alberta. Many young Albertans deserve recognition for exceptional courage, initiative, selflessness or social responsibility. Do you know such a person?

Any citizen of Alberta can nominate a youngster — or a group — 6 to 18 years of age for an ALBERTA JUNIOR CITIZEN OF THE YEAR AWARD.

Complete and mail the coupon below. The boy, girl or group whose name you send in can qualify for this honour and the Canada Savings Bond that goes with it.

Alberta Junior Citizens of the Year Awards have been sponsored by Alberta's independent electric utility companies with the active co-operation of community newspaper editors since 1961.

Power companies sponsor Junior Citizen awards

For the 13th consecutive year, public recognition will be given to deserving Alberta youngsters during the annual meeting of the Alberta Weekly Newspapers' Association at Edmonton.

The Junior Citizens' program, sponsored by the independent electrical utility companies of Alberta, has received national recognition since its inception in 1961.

Among those noting the initiative and courage of Alberta youth are HRH Prince Philip, former governor-general Roland Michener, Lieutenant-Governor Grant MacEwan and Premier Peter Lougheed.

This year's ceremony will be held during a luncheon September 13 in the Macdonald Hotel in Edmonton.

Nomination of youngsters eligible for recognition as Junior Citizens is now under way. The final deadline for nominations is July 31.

Certificates of recognition, with a Canada Savings Bond, are expected to be presented again this year by the Lieutenant-governor.

Any young Alberta, or group, between the ages of six and 18 can qualify for a Junior Citizen of the Year award.

Boys and girls may be nominated for any act of achievement which involves courage, initiative or selflessness performed during the 12-month period, August 1, 1973 - July 31, 1974.

Of those who have received awards during the past 12 years, some have performed acts of physical heroism, often endangering their own lives. Donald Oullette of Gordon Crescent was a winner two years ago for his bravery and resourcefulness in rescuing two men from drowning in Pigeon Lake.

Others have overcome crippling physical handicaps to match, or exceed, the performance of their fellows. Some have shown exceptional leadership in community service projects.

Nominations may be forwarded to the editor of this newspaper, or direct to your electric utility.

The condition of 156 Street is disgraceful according to Mr. Ev Tremper, manager of the New Holland outlet on that thoroughfare. This picture will surely bear out his opinion. The traffic on the street must dodge massive potholes which are as deep as a small import. Mr. Tremper states that after a rain one has no idea how deep these holes are and the damage resulting from hitting one can be very significant. The situation has reached the point where customers will rather go somewhere else than expose their cars to the vicious pounding.

Steam locomotive will run again

Did you ever ask yourself: "What happened to that old steam engine that used to sit at the Exhibition Grounds for years and years? Remember how the kids used to climb all over it?"

Well, this favorite attraction, former CNR locomotive No. 1392 built in 1913 still lives; and this July 1st long weekend will emerge from the Alberta Pioneer Railway Association's shops to run again. First time operating in 14 years it will be hauling passengers, on short 10 minute runs, from noon to 6 p.m. (Saturday, Sunday and Monday).

A special ceremony marking this occasion will be held on Sunday at 2 p.m. with representatives on hand from City of Edmonton, Edmonton Exhibition Association and CNR, without whose help, 1392 would not be making her glorious return.

The Alberta Pioneer Railway Association is a non-profit association, not connected with any railroad, whose members are working to preserve an important part of the history of Western Canada.

McMurray joint school to be reviewed

Education Minister Lou Hyndman announced today that a special review of high school services in Fort McMurray will be undertaken. The urgent review will be conducted by Dr. O. P. Larson, a well known educator recently retired as superintendent of schools from Lethbridge.

Dr. Larson will report to the minister on the advantages and disadvantages of developing a high school to be operated jointly by the public and separate school boards of Fort McMurray in co-operation with the Alberta Vocational Centre.

"There have been considerable negotiations between the two school boards towards such a joint operation, but a final decision has not been reached," Mr. Hyndman explained. "Dr. Larson will meet with the school boards and other interested community groups and individuals to assess the present situation, and to recommend further action that might be taken to provide the most effective high school educational services to Fort McMurray," the minister continued.

Completion of the report is expected by mid-August so that further consideration will not be unduly delayed. Dr. Larson is expected to commence the study immediately.

Things To Do

Aviation Hall of Fame premiere at K-Days

Canada's Aviation Hall of Fame, inaugurated last year, will have its premiere at Edmonton's Klondike Days Exposition, July 17 - 27. Hall of Fame Exhibits will be on display in the Sportex building on the Exhibition grounds from noon to 9 p.m. daily.

Edmonton ceremonies in connection with inauguration of the Hall of Fame will be launched with a massive fly-in at the Industrial Airport, timed for 7 a.m., Sunday, July 14. Depending on the weather, several hundred planes could be involved, making the event one of the biggest ever staged on this continent. Pilots will be guests at a Klondike breakfast to be served on the ramp outside the Edmonton Flying Club hangar.

On Monday, members of the Order of leasus will attend a private investiture. The ceremony is timed for 6 p.m. Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. the City of Edmonton will be host of the Hall of Fame Investiture banquet, to be held at the new Edmonton Plaza Hotel. All members attending will receive citations, as will relatives of the deceased members.

On Wednesday, at 7 a.m., Hall of Fame members will attend a civic Klondike Breakfast at City Hall, after which they will be guests of honour at the Klondike Days Parade, kicking off at 9:30 a.m.

Following the Edmonton inauguration, Canada's Aviation Hall of Fame is expected to tour major centres across the country. Because of the city's dominant role in the development of northern aviation, the feats of her bush pilots and her status as "Gateway to the North," it is hoped the Hall of Fame will eventually be housed in the downtown convention centre soon to be on architectural drawing boards.

Free Youth program at K-Days

There is plenty of action in store for young people during Klondike Days. The Youth Building, south of the Sportex on the east side of the Exhibition Grounds, will be busy from 8 a.m. to midnight daily with continuous schedules in effect from noon to midnight.

A six-member urban youth program committee, co-ordinated by Lorna Johnson, has plans for dances, art shows, drama, a high school fashion competition, concerts, a restaurant operation, a "dunk tank", and even an adult tricycle race. The ever-appealing "dunk tank" will be in the hands of Edmonton Boy Scouts, who use the proceeds to fund their other projects.

The 90 seat restaurant, opening at 8 a.m. daily, will be the responsibility of Edmonton's Teen Challenge Association, directed by the Rev. Eugene Ophelin. The group will be serving food that appeals to the younger crowd, at younger-crowd prices. Programs presented by the Teen Challenge performers will be seen in front of the Youth Building.

The Expositions Two Kids' Days, Friday, July 19, and Thursday, July 25, will feature children's art festivals, where youngsters from tots to the Grade 9 level will be given paints, crayons, brushes, paper and canvas to exercise their creative instincts. The artistically-inclined in older age groups will have their day at an Art-O-Rama planned for Tuesday, July 23.

The best thing of the whole package is that everything is free.

Contestants compete for $200,000 at Calgary Stampede

"With the top cowboys in world competition matching their exacting talents with some of the best rodeo stock in the world, there's little question that the competition will be keen and exciting every minute," says Graham O'Connor, director responsible for the rodeo at Calgary's Stampede.

Contestants at the 1974 Calgary Stampede will be competing for the largest rodeo purse in the world, $200,000 after entry fees have been added to the $160,750 prize money offered in the Stampede. This includes $17,450 in Saddle Bronce Riding; $16,075 in Calf roping; $10,000 in Wrestling; $10,000 in Bull Riding;

$3,900 in the Wild Horse Race; $2,200 in Wild Cow Milking; Novice Saddle Bronce Riding; and Boys' Steer Riding; $1,500 in Girls' Barrel Racing; and $67,000 in Chuckwagon Racing.

In the five main rodeo events, the Stampede has drawn 12 of the top 15 hands in the current world standings. "In short," Mr. O'Connor states, "the Calgary Stampede entries read like a 'Who's Who' of Rodeo."

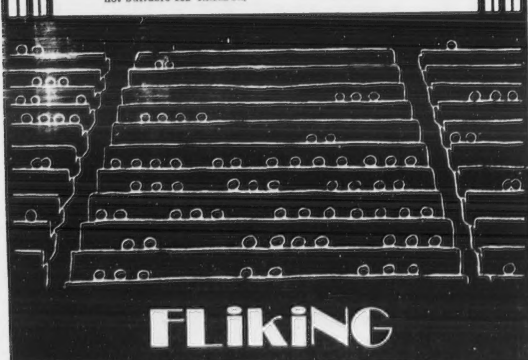

Rodeo events run each afternoon at 2 o'clock in front of the Stampede Park Grandstand, while Chuckwagon Races take place at 8 p.m. each evening during the Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth, July 4 - 13.

OUR TIME

A lot of this movie could have been left out and it still would have carried the punch. If you like a production that will nicely bring you to tears, then Our Time will surely accomplish that amazingly well through an important message that comes across very well, and is a credit to director Peter Hyams.

Basically, it is a movie about the lucky and the unfortunate, the pretty and the plain - the handsome and the drip. Abbey, played by Pamela Sue Martin, is the popular school girl with good looks and natural talents who winds up helping friend and room mate, Muffy, portrayed very well by Betsy Slade. Muffy drags poor, love sick Malcolm (George O'Hanlon Jr.) into a car and winds up getting pregnant and becomes the sorry loser. Michael, (Parker Stevenson) Abbey's handsome boyfriend arranges for Muffy to have an abortion which results in a tragic event. The other characters in the movie were poorly done and quite sick. Watch for the milkshake scene, as it is a most touching scene and very well thought out.

Our Time is playing at the Garneau and is rated adult not suitable for children.

Pitch and Spice receive grant

MLA Ernie Jamison presented a cheque for $4,568.20 to Mr. Maurice Ouelley for the Pitch and Spice choir on Tuesday, June 25.

The grant from the Department of Culture, Youth and Recreation represents 100 per cent of the transportation costs for the group's trip to Expo in Spokane. Under the direction of Failure Duchesneau, the young musicians will be performing three times daily at the Alberta Amphitheatre during their stay.

In a letter confirming the grant, the Hon. Hon. Schmidt offered his congratulations to the members of Pitch and Spice for the drive that has been shown in this adventure."

K-Days a prize package

Total value of major raffle prizes to be given away during Edmonton's Klondike Days Exposition will be well in excess of $225,000. While the prize tags on major awards show significant increases this year, the grand total for the 10-day exposition is down from last year because K-Days is spanning less time than last year.

The six top draws operating this year will offer cash or merchandise. Four of these operations are sponsored by Edmonton service clubs, while the Edmonton Exhibition Association backs two.

The costliest prize package this year has been assembled by the Kinsmen Club of Edmonton who will be giving away 11 cars and a truck-camper combination for a total retail value of $65,000. The Lions Clubs of Edmonton are giving away a dream home with a market value of $60,000 and 10 patio sets valued at $180 each. The Associated Canadian Travellers Gold Brick draw offers chances on a gold brick worth $50,000 plus 10 mini-bricks worth $1,000 each.

The Edmonton Rotary Clubs' major prize this year will be a $17,000 Winnebago motorhome. All that will be required to put the unit in motion is a license and insurance. The Rotarians will be given away 10 Westinghouse 26 inch floor-model color TV sets.

In all five ways except the Bonanza Gold Draw, winning tickets in the nightly awards will go back into the drums with all the tickets sold and will be eligible for grand prizes to be awarded at midnight on July 27, the final day of the '74 Exposition.

Kinsmen host Musical Ride performance

Tickets are now on sale for the performance of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Musical Ride being staged by the Kinsmen Club of St. Albert. There will be seating for 15,000 people at the Rodeo grounds for the performance which gets underway at 7 p.m. on Monday, July 29.

The merchants in St. Albert who have tickets on sale for the Musical Ride are Emery's Pipe Shop, St. Albert Texaco, St. Albert Inn, Roger's Esso, Heritage House, all drug stores, and by mail (Box 2000, St. Albert). The price of tickets for adults is $2.00, for children under 16 is $1.50, and children under six are admitted free.

The main attraction of the affair is the Musical Ride, but a two-hour program has been scheduled. It will include performances by the Edmonton All Girl Ambassadors Marching Band who will have just returned from the world finals, and the Saddleback dancers from Hobbema. There will also be an Intermediate Horse Jumping display featuring riders and horses from Equestrian Manor. Part of the ceremonies of the performance will include sword turning of the new Kinsmen Community Building which commemorates the RCMP Centennial Year.

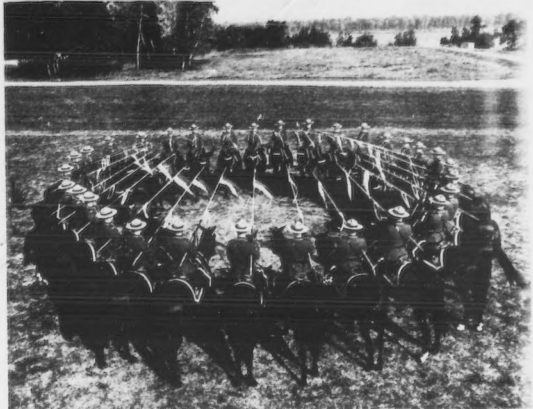

The Musical Ride is scheduled for a five-week tour of Alberta communities including St. Albert, Vegreville, Peace River, Grande Prairie, and a host of other cities and towns in 2,300 miles of travelling.

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police Musical Ride is performed to nearly a million people each year in Canada and abroad. Performed by a full troupe of 32 men and horses, it is the execution of a variety of intricate figures and movements to music of appropriate tempo. The complex and painstakingly rehearsed formations have developed through the ages from cavalry exercises. They enable the rider to gain confidence and complete control of his mount. Perfection in the execution of the intricate patterns allows a large mounted troupe to move in any direction quickly and in unison.

Demanding utmost control timing, and co-ordination, these figures are formed by individual horses and riders, by twos, fours, and eights at the trot and canter. Included in the various figures formed in the Musical Ride are the Bridal Arch, the V, the Shanghai Cross, the Gales, the Star, the Clover Leaf, Threading the Needle, the Wagon Wheel, the Carousel, the Maze, and the Dome.

By far, the Charge is the

One of the formations which will be part of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Musical Ride is 'the Dome.' The figure will give you some idea of the precision and the beauty of the Musical Ride performance which will be in St. Albert on July 29.

most spectacular and exciting display of the Musical Ride performance. The horses and riders bolt forward at a gallop and observers are given an inkling of the power and energy of a cavalry troupe spurred into action.

A specially prepared program will be on sale at the performance which is designed to inform spectators of the history of the Musical

Ride, the RCMP, the Town of St. Albert, and the Kinsmen Club. Refreshments and food will be on sale as will the RCMP souvenir record. The performance will go on 'rain or shine.'

AROUND TOWN

Visitors to Betty and Tony Schlavon of Fenwick Cres., are Betty's mother and sister, Mrs. and Margaret Avery of Darlington, Co. Durham, England. The Schlavons and their guests will be visiting Calgary during the Stampede and then they will go on to Banff and Jasper. From the mountains they will go on to meet Maureen and John Graves, and Mrs. Marjories Graves from Leeds, England at a lake near Vernon, B.C. It will be quite a family reunion as Betty, Maureen and Margaret are cousins.

Mrs. Eva Vaugeois of Vancouver is enjoying a visit with her brother-in-law Maurice Vaugeois and family of Madonna Drive, for a few weeks.

Saints advance to finals with win over the Fort

St. Albert Willowbrook Saints baseball club, behind the two hit pitching of Art Rechlo, shutout Fort Saskatchewan Red Sox 1-0 Friday night at the Fort to take their best of three Sunburst Baseball League semi-final series two games to one. Saints won the first game Wednesday at home with Doug Edwards getting five runs batted in on a double and a homerun. Fort took the second game 9-7.

Saints now advance to the Sunburst finals against Camrose Cubs who took out favoured Leduc Oilers two straight. The winner of the Saints-Cubs series will represent the Sunburst League in provincial playoff action in Wideswater July 20-21 in a five team tournament with teams from other zones. The winner will then advance to a best of three series with a team from the Alberta Major Baseball League for the right to represent Alberta in the Canadian finals to be held at North Battleford in early August.

Rain has hampered the start of the Camrose series which was to have started in St. Albert on Monday.

In the final game against the Fort, which was called after five innings because of rain, Rechlo, in addition to allowing only two hits, also struck out 10 batters, including nine of the last 10 he faced. The only run of the game came on an error by the Fort's catcher. With one out in the top of the fifth inning, losing pitcher Bob Hood got Saints batter Larry Perrott to swing at a third strike that somehow got by the catcher and rolled to the backstop.

Before it could be retrieved Perrott had scampered to first base. Hood then walked Gerry Reineger and Rechlo to load the bases with only one out. Fred Seyers hit a solid ground ball and the Fort shortstop made a good play to knock it down, but couldn't stop Perrott scoring from third. He did manage to force Reineger going into third for the second out and Keith Birrell flew out to retire the side.

Rechlo struck out the side in the bottom of the fifth. Saints first three batters in the sixth all singled to load the bases but the umpire called the game due to the playing conditions of the infield. Rain fell throughout the game and it probably should never have been played in the first place.

Saints also took the opening game with a come-from-behind 7-4 win in St. Albert Wednesday night. Fort took an early 3-0 lead but a two run double by Doug Edwards in the fourth and a single by Hank Reinbold scoring Edwards tied the game. Edwards then blasted a three run homer in the fifth to give the Saints a 7-4 win. Winning pitcher Nestor Sorobey went all the way for the Saints, allowing six hits.

Saints should have won the second game in the Fort on Thursday but two costly errors produced seven unearned runs and the Saints after leading 5-0 took a 9-7 loss. Greg Taylor and Fred Seyers had homeruns for the Saints with Taylor's being a three-run blast in the first inning. Winning pitcher Ken Moore had a pair of four baggers for the Red Sox.

Saints also found time to play some tournament ball over the weekend with a pair of games in the eight-team Warburg tournament. Saints won their game on Saturday with a 6-3 win over Thorsby with the help of a two-run homer by Larry Wolbeck. Art Rechlo, the last of three St. Albert pitchers, got credit for the win. Rookie Gary Greening started and gave way to Fred Seyers before Rechlo came in.

On Sunday the Saints lost a 13-6 game to a team from Easyford with the winners scoring seven runs in the fourth inning to offset a 5-0 St. Albert lead. Saints coach Art Rechlo did not want to use any of his regular pitchers due to their Sunburst series with Camrose and could not contain the Easyford hitters.

Weekend baseball action - provincial playoffs

St. Albert has entered four teams in search of a provincial baseball crown this year and three of the teams see action this weekend. Some of the teams and places where our boys are playing have not been decided at press time, but all coaches involved will be informed as soon as possible.

MOSQUITO

The Totems, coached by Joe Arisman do not see action until July 27 when they will be involved in a modified double knockout tournament with four other teams. Totems are slated to go against a team from the Edmonton Northeast zone which will take place somewhere in the Westlock area.

BEAVER

St. Albert will be represented by the Pirates, coached by Lloyd Hanke and will play in a double knockout series this weekend against one of these four teams, Fawcett, Hazelbluff, Westlock or Rochester. The game will also be at one of these locations.

BANTAM

For the fourth straight year, Doug Millroy will take his Cubs into the playoffs. It will be a modified double knockout four team series with the Cubs first game going Saturday at 12 noon against Woodcroft from Edmonton. The game will be played on McQueen diamond on 108 Avenue and 144 Street.

The other two teams have not been decided as yet, but will be from the Westlock and Stony Plain areas.

MIDGETS

St. Albert's only midget team, coached by Rob Johnston, will play this Saturday in a four team double knockout tournament in Morinville. Bon Accord and Morinville will play at 12 noon, while St. Albert and Leduc go at 3 p.m.

Acreage raffle tickets now on sale

The hard working Calahoo Sports Association are on the prowl again. In an effort to obtain funds to purchase an artificial ice plant for their new arena, the Sports Association are raffling off an acreage. The beautiful 4.5 acreage is located some 15 miles west of St. Albert and is situated near a well maintained road which is a school bus route. The acreage is serviced with underground telephone and overhead power to the site. If you are thinking about moving out to the country, and a lot of people are these days, their is probably not a better buy to be had. Tickets are only $2 each and can be obtained by completing the coupon attached in the ad below this article. Once payment has been received you will be immediately sent your ticket stub indicating proof of purchase and that your name has been recorded for the draw which will take place in the Arena sometime in November, 1974 when the new facility opens.

Tennis club to hold novelty doubles

The third Novelty Doubles tournament (adult) of the season will be held next Wednesday, July 17. These always popular mixers have been attracting a lot of the newer members and it is hoped that there will be a good turnout next week. This will be the first opportunity to gather in the clubhouse between and after games.

The junior interclub team has been doing very well and is presently in second place in their league. The team defeated Garneau 7-5, split with Hillcrest 6-6, and lost to Glenora 6-5. Team members have been Bill Keech, Phil and Cassie Kemp, Steven Kirk, Valerie Green, Maureen Harris, Brian Dunik, Don Provencal, Bob Gilbertson and Craig Hoge. Many thanks to Al Hoge for all the work he has done with the Juniors this year thus far in his capacity as junior co-ordinator.

Four of the junior club members entered the city junior tournament (Bill, Phil Cassie, Steve) - which is incomplete due to rain, and these four are presently in Calgary for the Provincial Junior tournament.

The next junior interclub match will be held at St.

Albert the week of July 21 and those interested in playing are asked to contact Bill Keech. Junior clubmembers are also reminded about the coaching-playing sessions on Monday and Wednesday afternoons conducted by the court supervisors - Bill Keech and Colleen Neeland - all levels of ability welcome.

The senior interclub teams have not been faring quite as well as the juniors and it looks like none of the teams will make the playoffs, but the teams have been giving a lot of players the experience of playing interclub which has value for the future. B1 team members (six men and four women) have been Peter Miller, Lorne Wood, Roger Lebel Tom Foran, Theo Lukyenaar, Carl Lindenberg; Angela Miller, Joan Green, Donna Jackson, Kay Foran. The B2 team has also involved six men and four women - Wally Skrobot, Bob Sage, Brian Mansfield, Mel Boehmer, Al Buckle, Wayne Boyd; Anne Kirk, Joan Gates, Barb Chan, Iona Kennedy. The A team has used its six available players - Dave Kirk, Roman Mureika, Al Hoge, Betty Ontkean, Shannon Lindenberg, Judy Wood.

The winners of the June novelty doubles tournament were Joan Gates and Don Altken.

Sailfish score another win

The St. Albert Sailfish Swim Club have marked up yet another aquatic victory following the meet held on Sunday, July 7. The communities of Westlock, Hinton, Edson and Lloydminster were represented in the meet along with the St. Albert team.

Keen competition was the order of the day with a very high standard of swimming witnessed by a good crowd. No provincial records were broken but if the high calibre of swimming continues, records will undoubtedly be broken.

Mayor Gibbon opened the meet and racing continued until 5:30. A single heavy rain shower occurred about midway through the contest. Final standings saw St. Albert finishing in first place, Westlock in second place, Edson in third, Lloydminster in fourth, and Hinton in last spot. The second place finish for the team from Westlock was very significant due to the relatively recent entry of the team to competition.

The Sailfish Swim team continues to fare well in competition and are definitely felt to be a force to be reckoned with for the rest of the summer.

Calahoo ladies win at Sangudo

Calahoo ladies fastball team coached by Sneaky Berube won the annual Sangudo Ladies fastball tournament over the weekend with four straight wins.

On Saturday, Calahoo opened the eight-team tournament with a 13-8 win over Sangudo with Gladys Ginther on the mound. Sharon Kopp hit the only homerun of the two-day tournament for Calahoo in the game.

In their second game Saturday with Kopp and Ginther on the mound, Calahoo scored a close 8-7 win over the favored Clymont team. The win put Calahoo into the semi-finals Sunday against Alderflats and it only lasted five innings with Calahoo running away with a 12-2 win.

In the final game of the tournament Lucille Moellmann was the star with three triples as Calahoo upset

SWIMMING:

An advertisement in this issue contains details of the next session of instructional classes being held at the pool. Registrations will be taken on Tuesday and Wednesday, July 16 and 17 at Sir George Simpson School from 7 - 9 p.m. on each evening.

People who were on holiday during the time of registration have now returned and if they're lucky - and quick they may find it possible to register for lessons during the two-week session starting on July 15. For information about openings please phone the Department of Recreation at 459-6601.

An appeal is once again made to parents to check if their children have locker keys which they may have forgotten to leave at the desk.

Fish Derby Winners

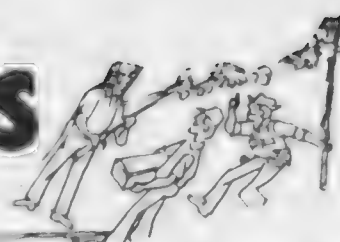

The second annual West Sturgeon Agricultural Society fish derby was a little hampered by wet and rainy weather during the weekend at Devils Lake but that did not stop a good number from turning out. Some 100 entrants took to the lake and some good catches were reported but none of the three winners were in the lunker class.

All winners were from Edmonton. Mr. Ron Nowitski took home $25 for a pickerel weighing in at 2 lbs. 4 oz. The biggest perch of the derby weighed 15 1/2 oz., and was caught by John Morischuck while the northern pike weighed in at 3 lbs. 12 ozs. The perch was worth Montrose from Edmonton 15-6. Debbie Morin was the winning pitcher and the win was worth $125 to the Calahoo Sports Association.

St. Albert REC NEWS

the rink shelters in Grosvenor Park, Salisbury Park Mission Park and Braeside are being very well attended - even when it rains!

From 10 a.m. - 12 noon and from 1 - 5 p.m. the playgrounds are supervised and the children (five years and over) enjoy a varied program of arts and crafts, games, etc. There is no charge but the children may occasionally be asked to bring things from home.

Parents are reminded that the program is not a babysitting service and children may leave the playground at any time.

YOUTH EMPLOYMENT SERVICE:

There has been a very good response to the Youth Employment Service which is now in operation.

Through this service, householders can be put in touch with young people willing to help with lawn maintenance, fence painting and similar chores. The service is not confined to householders; the students are willing to tackle almost anything so if you have an "odd job" that needs to be done please phone 459-6601, extension 68 between 8:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. on weekdays. Students looking for casual employment can call at the Town Hall and register during the same hours.

TENNIS:

The tennis courts and clubhouse at Mission Park are being supervised by Colleen Neeland and/or Bill Keech from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. on weekdays and from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays. The clubhouse is open during these hours.

Juniors interested in improving their game can go to the courts between approximately 2 and 4 p.m. on Monday and Wednesday afternoons when they will get guidance from the supervisors.

JOINT USE:

Application forms for the use of accommodation under the terms of the Joint Use Agreement are available at the office of the Recreation Department in the Town Hall. Officials of organizations wishing to apply for accommodation next year should pick one up, complete it and return it as soon as possible.

Golden Jets lose falter in third period

The third period again proved to be the undoing of the St. Albert Golden Jets Senior Lacrosse Club Sunday as the Jets lost a heart-breaker to the first place Edmonton Fullers - this time 16-13.

The Jets had held period leads of 6-2 and 11-9 but were outscored 7-2 by the Edmonton squad in the final period.

Ernie Williams led the Fullers attack with four goals while Len Fasek and John Antonello chipped in with three goals apiece.

Rick Wood and Barry Konkolus had three goals each for the Golden Jets while Brian Pedersen chipped in with two. Single markers were counted by Ray Anaka, Don Konkolus, Lee Carlyle, Blake Christopherson and Wally Monson. The game was cleanly played with 12 minor penalties and one mafor called. The Jets took the only major and four of the minors.

Fullers kept the St. Albert goaltenders busy for most of the evening blasting 62 shots at the St. Albert goal. The Jets replied with 43 shots on Bob Johnson in the Fuller's goal.

The loss brought the Golden Jets record to 5-9. In order to move into second place the Jets will probably have to win five out of their remaining seven games. With the team virtually at full strength five wins could be possible.

Attention Baseball Coaches

St. Albert Minor Baseball Chairman Jim Murray would like all coaches not competing in playoff or provincial action to please gather up all their equipment and return it to Mr. Murray at 57 Geneva Crescent. Any coaches not being able to do this are asked to call Mr. Murray at 459-8160.

New Eight Cent Stamp honours agri-education

Postmaster General Andre Oellet announced the issue of an eight-cent stamp honouring Canadian agricultural educators and scientists.

The stamp, to be issued July 12, embodies a graphic design symbolizing Canada's contribution to agriculture through the country's educational facilities, scientific research, and fertile land. The stamp was designed by Mary Brett, Patric Cowley-Brown, and Allan McAllister, all of Ottawa.

It is a happy circumstance that the issue of this stamp coincides with the 100th birthday of the Ontario Agricultural College," said Mr. Oellet. "Canadian agricultural programs have contributed much to the development of the science not only in Canada, but in the world at large." Throughout the years, the Canada Post Office has issued several stamps honouring this very vital industry.

For this issue, the Canada Post Office has declared Guelph, home of the Ontario Agricultural College, as the site for official First Day cancellations. Customers are requested to send their own First Day covers to Ottawa where stamps will be affixed and the orders processed. The covers will be shipped in bulk to Guelph for cancelling and returned to the customer from that location.

RCMP K-Days display encourages public understanding

A C-PIC terminal will be on show in the RCMP display in the Sportex Building, Edmonton Exhibition Grounds, during the K-Days Exposition, July 17 - 27. The Exposition this year, from starting parade forward, will pay tribute to the Alberta RCMP Century, since it was 100 hundred years ago that the first mounted police contingent marched into what now is the Province of Alberta.

'C-PIC' for Canadian Police Information Centre, the computerized communications spear that has nailed many a suspected auto thief to the wall. The RCMP can stop a car anywhere in Alberta, radio its serial number to Ottawa, and have an answer in 90 seconds flat.

The RCMP display, covering 3,000 square feet, will tell both the historical and contemporary stories of the nation's world-renowned force. Static displays, uniforms worn over the century, badges, leaflets and slide presentations will be used to demonstrate the complexities of police activity, and there will be plenty of opportunities for public participation.

Sportex visitors will be able to match the wits with a 'rubber stamp kit' in which a series of duplicate sketches can be checked for intentional mis-matching. A training device by which rookies are shown that the slightest overlooked detail could be enough to have an open-and-shut case thrown out of court.

Another feature will be a facial identification demonstration, in which an artist will sketch, from witnesses' descriptions, the caricature of a wanted criminal.

Take-home souvenir fingerprints will be available in another identification demonstration, with communications, bicycle safety and boating safety displays showing these aspects of RCMP workings.

A staff of mounties will be on duty in the display at all times and the hoped for results in widened understanding, on the part of the public, of how and why a modern law enforcement organization carries out its duties.

K-Days grandstand show

Tommy Hunter's CBC-TV replacement, Ronnie Prophet, will be the lead act in Grandshow '74 - the free nightly stage show on the outdoor stage at Northlands Grandstand during the K-Days Exposition, July 17 - 27.

Ronnie is the boy from Calumet, Quebec, who is stirring things up on the U.S. night club scene and as of June 22 takes a summer time slot on the CBC's TV network. "Don't call me a country-western singer," he insists. "I'm an entertainer, an artist from Nashville."

Prophet has been termed a one man show - a singer, musician, comedian, and perfectionist of the first order. His grandstand show should be a feature attraction of any visit to the Exposition.

Horses, theme of special K-Days show

All types of horses will be in the limelight at a special display scheduled for Edmonton's Klondike Days Exposition, July 17-27. The show, titled 'The Wonderful World of Horses', will have the backing of all the major breed and riding organizations in the Edmonton district.

The display will be located in the south end of the Livestock Sales Pavilion at the north end of the Exposition Grounds. Demonstrations and riding shows will be presented daily in the Sales Pavilion's sales ring and in the adjoining judging ring.

Shows planned for the Sales Pavilion Ring will alternate with films to provide a non-stop program. The shows will offer demonstrations of horsemanship, equipment, grooming, tack, shoeing, and displays by various 4-H light horse clubs. The audience will be able to meet members of the demonstration teams to discuss points of interest.

A series of min-displays timed for 5:00 p.m. in the outdoor ring and running for one and half hours, are scheduled. These will include sets of gymkhana - type games, showings of three and five gaited horses, driving, heavy horse hitching, Arabian and Appaloosa costume classes, and a thematic Gay Nineties show by members of the Alberta Morgan Horse Club.

'The Wonderful World of Horses' will be a bonus feature of the coming of K-Days Exposition, open to all horse lovers at no extra admission charge.

9th Lieutenant Governor sworn-in

On Tuesday, July 2, Mr. Ralph Garvin Steinhauer was sworn in as Alberta's ninth Lieutenant Governor, at the Legislative Building in Edmonton. Mr. Steinhauer, a full Treaty Indian of the Cree tribe, is the first native in Canada's history to be appointed to the Viceregal post.

Ralph Garvin Steinhauer was born in June, 1905, in Morley, Alberta, three months prior to the birth of Alberta as a province. He is the grandson of the famous missionary, Henry Bird Steinhauer.

In 1928, Mr. Steinhauer was married to Isabel Davidson, who was teaching school at Vilna, Alberta. The following year they established a farm near Broseau on the Saddle Lake Indian Reserve. It remains the family farm.

The farm covers some 1,800 acres with 700 acres of cultivated land and 300 head of cattle.

Mr. Steinhauer has had an impressive number of involvements to his credit. He was Chief of the Saddle Lake Indian Band for three years and spent 34 years as a councillor. He aided in the establishment of the Indian Association of Alberta and remains active in that group. He is the past president.

To continue, Mr. Steinhauer helped launch and is a member of the Saddle Lake Centennial Development Association, a highly successful farming venture. At present he is a member of the Two Hills Chamber of Commerce and a past member of the St. Paul Chamber of Commerce. He spent five full years on the Board of Directors of Alberta Newstart. He has also been a member for the Northern Alberta Development Council.

He was a recipient of the Medal of Service of the Order of Canada in 1967 and became an officer of the Order in 1972.

He is the past president of the Alberta Indian Development Systems Ltd., district president of the Farmer's Union, served on the Board of Directors for the Broseau Mutual Telephone System, the Indian Eskimo Association, and the Rural Electrification Association. He has also been involved in the Alberta Rural Development Authority and the Federal Indian Economic Development.

In 1963, when nominated as a Liberal candidate for Vegreville riding, he became the first North American Indian to run as a candidate in a federal election.

On April 30, Prime Minister Trudeau officially announced in the House of Commons Mr. Steinhauer's appointment as the ninth Lieutenant Governor of Alberta. Mr. Steinhauer's duties, in the Viceregal post as Alberta's Lieutenant Governor include: presiding at official functions and entertaining distinguished guests to the province.

Mr. Ralph Steinhauer, Alberta's next Lieut. Governor, and his wife Isabel, received a number of gifts at a testimonial dinner given in their honour, May 25th, 1974 by the Saddle Lake Indian Band. Among the gifts presented to the Steinhauers were beaded vests, and the head-dress worn by Mr. Steinhauer.

Bridging the gap

The six young people who were awarded an Opportunities for Youth Federal government grant for a research project called "Bridging the Gap," report that work is underway on gathering material on the history of St. Albert from the senior citizens.

Their headquarters are at the library, and they can be reached by telephoning 459-3774. The students are talking to people who have lived here a long time and taping the interviews for typing up later. They are interested in stories from their lives and all related events and information about St. Albert's early history.

By the end of the summer they will have a booklet printed for use in St. Albert schools, the library and other interested parties.

The young people are anxious to hear from as many as possible of our older residents and ask anyone who can help them out to give them a call.

Construction crews are hard at work on the interceptor sewer line which will become part of the 'upgrading' of St. Albert's sewage disposal. The project, which involves five separate phases, is anticipated for completion later this year when the town's sewage will be transported to a new treatment facility on the North Saskatchewan River. The construction of this phase, a 36 inch sewage line, caused temporary closure of Perron Street.

The Light Touch

By Pat Christensen

It isn't a bad idea to keep quiet occasionally, even when you know what you're talking about.

Then there was the karate expert who rolled down his window to signal a left turn -- and chopped a Volkswagen in half.

The mini divided girls into two groups: those with pretty legs, and those who wear their skirts too short.

Report from Bon Accord

By Sadie Allen

The Bon Accord 4H Beef Club held their club show at the Sales Pavilion on July 3. Champion calf for the show was Gary Bilecki's white reserve champion went to Michael Uchacz. In showmanship, Rick Kreway placed first and Bill Rigney second. In grooming, Victor Uchacz placed first and Rick Kreway second. The regional show was held on July 4. Placing second in showmanship was Rick Kreway, Marsha Rigney's "Pen of three" placed first and the "Pen of Four" shown by Rick and David Kreway, Marsha Rigney and Victor Uchacz placed fourth. The club reports a very successful sale and wishes to thank all those local supporters who helped to make it so.

Rio April Starlet of Spruce Ridge Appaloosas was judged Reserve Grand Champion mare at the Regional Appaloosas Horse Show in Leduc.

who made the trip into the city to cheer the girls on. League games will continue until the end of July. Check the schedule posted in the store for times.

Norma and Ev Bunnell of Spruce Ridge Appaloosas, continue to raise champion horses at their ranch near Bon Accord, the home of the great stallion Go Meyer Jim. Last weekend at Leduc, a number of their Appaloosas were shown at the Northern Regional Appaloosas Horse Club Show and three of the Spruce Ridge horses were judged champions. Wampum's Shopoke, now a two year old was judged Reserve

Grand Champion stallion, Rio April Starlet - Reserve Grand Champion mare and Top Go Meyer, a black and white leopard son of Go Meyer Jim, won the foal futurity and colts of /74, taking the honors from other foals from all parts of Alberta. Norma and Ev are pleased and proud of these young horses and are sure they will distinguish themselves even more this year at shows throughout Western Canada.

A reminder of the beer fest for Friday, July 12 at the Bon Accord Community Centre and the senior baseball tournament on Saturday and Sunday, July 13 and 14.

The 1st Bon Accord Girls Guild are having a wake-a-thon from 8 a.m. Friday, July 12 to 2 p.m. Saturday, July 13. The girls will sweep the night at Victor Schiffner's. Money earned from pledges will be used to purchase carrying flags and a tent.

Keith Whitson's bantam girls made a clean sweep in the Northern Alberta provincial semi-finals held at Bon Accord on July 7, taking out the teams from Calder, Fort McMurray and Beacon Heights with very little trouble. Battery for all three games consisted of Lori Pawluk pitching and Karen Krysko catching. All the girls played a fine game and are to be congratulated along with their coach Keith Whitson on their successful play. The girls will play the winners of the semi-final played at Strome on July 7 for the Northern Alberta provincial championship. For further information, contact Keith at the store.

Gall's Girls lost out in their bid for a junior AA berth in the provincial play-offs held the weekend of July 1. The girls beat out the Oil Molds in their first game, losing out to Callwood 11-3 and 9-8. In the final game they pulled up from an 8-1 deficit. Gall and the team would like to thank all their supporters

Mr. Clay Crozier on behalf of the Namao district presented Mr. William Tanastuk with an engraved plaque, a crystal vase and a purse of money in appreciation of the principal's 22 years service at Namao School. Mr. Tanastuk has been appointed Director of Pupil Services with Sturgeon School Division.

Stewart - Hodgins Wedding

By Sadie Allen

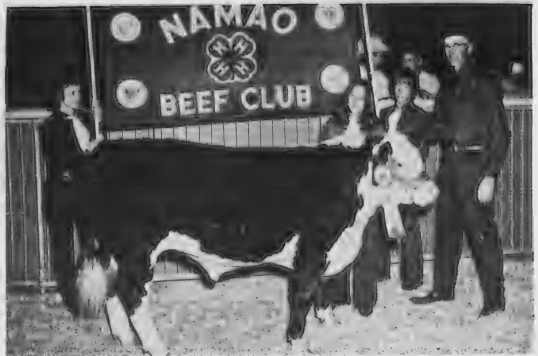

The Church of the Good Shepherd (Anglican) in Edmonton was the scene of a lovely afternoon wedding on June 29, when Carol Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Hodgins of Bon Accord became the bride of Const. Robert Francis Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Stewart of Manitoba. Rev. Barford officiated at the double ring ceremony. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a floor length gown styled with an empire waistline, long sleeves and a high neckline. Lace appliques decorated bodice and cuffs. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a lace cap and she carried a bouquet of red roses and baby's breath. The bridal attendants, Mrs. June Werenska, sister of the bride, Misses Penny and Maureen Stewart, the groom's sisters and Miss Helen Stuart were identical blue and white flowered gowns and white hair, and carried bouquets of daisies and baby's breath. Attending the groom were Const. Jim Jones, Tony Taylor and Mike Hampel. The bride's mother wore a blue and white floral gown with white accessories, the groom's an orange floral gown and white accessories. Both mothers had orchid corsages.

The happy couple left the church under the arch of crossed lances held by an RCMP honour guard. A reception for 190 guests was held at the St. Albert Inn. Cpl. Dave Doll of St. Albert was m.c. and Mr. Ray Runden of Bon Accord proposed a toast to the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will reside in Leduc after a honeymoon in Vancouver and Victoria.

Grand Champion at the 1974 Edmonton Regional 4H Beef Show and Sale held July 4th at the Sales Pavilion was a hereford steer shown by 12 year old Kathy Berger, a member of the Namao Beef Club. Buyer at $1.05 per pound was Canada Safeway Ltd.

MORINVILLE MEMOS

The new liquor board store in Morinville has encountered delays through shortages in certain of the fixtures and furnishings required, but these have now been procured and contractors stated the building would be ready for final inspection by July 15th, and August 1st is the probable opening date.

Meanwhile the Town has laid new sidewalks and allowed for some additional landscaping and the new self-serve facility will be a welcome addition to the business community in Morinville.

The next meeting of the United Church Ladies Aid will be held at the home of Mrs. Rose Weiss on Tuesday, July 16 starting at 8 p.m. We welcome any newcomers as well as our regular members. For more information please call Jean Robinson 256-3153.

Mrs. Marilyn Pelletier has been appointed as Gazette correspondent for the Town of Morinville and she will appreciate the co-operation of residents in contacting her on any and all news of events, social functions, clubs, meetings and so on. Marilyn's phone number is 256-3741.

Mrs. Pelletier takes over from Mrs. Flo McGinnis who found she could not devote sufficient time to news coverage of the town. Pictures taken by residents can also be turned in to Mrs. Pelletier and will be returned after use.

Marilyn will also be making advertising calls on local businesses and will take classified ads on the phone.

Morinville Seniors enjoy Eastern tour

By Dorothy Daignault

We were a happy group as we boarded the bus at the Rendez-vous Club Hut early on the morning of June 10. We were on our way to new places, historical places and to new experiences.

We flew to Toronto on a Loughheed 1011 then to Ottawa where we were greeted by a group of Senior Citizens from St. Albert, Ont. In Ottawa we visited the Parliament buildings, the museum of technology, the experimental farm and had a tour of the city. We crossed the Ottawa river into Hull where we enjoyed a steak supper.

In St. Albert we lived in private homes. There we visited a cheese factory and ate curds fresh from the vats. In Cornwall we saw a film about the building of the dam and the seven great turbines that generate electricity, and Upper Canada Village.

We continued on to our great cosmopolitan city of Montreal. That evening we boarded the fast transit system 'The Metro' and visited Man and His World. The next day we visited Notre Dame Church and St. Joseph's Oratory. On our tour of the city we visited the harbor. The main import is oil and its main export is wheat. Of the many sky scrapers in Montreal the Bank of Commerce has 45 stories. Some of these are the Bell Telephone, the Sun Life, Ville Marie and many others. At the College we visited a rich museum, a collection of rocks mineral ores insects from all over the world, sea shells, animals and birds.

The trip down to Quebec City skirted our majestic St. Lawrence River. Quebec City with its history, its citadel, its garrison, its war museum, the plains of Abraham, monuments of Montcalm and Wolfe, the Vimy Cross were very interesting. We visited the Ursuline Convent, saw the tomb of Marie de l'Incarnation, the museum of articles of pioneer days. In another part of the city we visited the Church of Our Lady of Victory, the altar initiates the entrance of a fort and the chandelier was in the form of a boat. We visited rooms which can be used for places of shelter in times of war, and we saw where Louis Joliette the great explorer lived. We had the pleasure of dining in Chateau Frontenac in one of the smaller dining rooms. The Parliament buildings are very colorfully decorated.

At Ste. Anne de Beaupre we entered the shrine as pilgrims singing a hymn to Ste. Anne. We assisted at mass prayed to Ste. Anne and then met Mgr Lussier and Father Lavole. On our return we stopped to see the Montmorency Falls.

The trip was not without some mishaps not serious, because they caused a lot of fun for some. The first night, a new experience sleeping in a dorm, those sleepless ones were entertained by strong snores, soft whistling ones and lady-like snores. There was great anxiety when two members were left behind on the tour in Ottawa. One lady was nearly left in the bus, reason, she sat on a wad of gum. In Montreal at the College three members were left standing outside in a downpour waiting for someone to open the door. Everywhere we went someone met friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Coulombe kept very busy and proved themselves very capable and pleasing to us. Our sincere thank you to them.

On our arrival in Morinville, we were greeted by Marjolaine Chamberland and Carl Royan and we were served coffee and lunch.

We rested one day and found ourselves caught up with Frontier Daze watching the parade, lunch at the International kitchen, always as delicious as ever.

In the evening our Senior Citizens were joined with the Sunshine Club from Medicine Hat. We were served supper in the Legion Hall. Mr. Don Oxford led us in a sing song in the evening.

We thank the ladies who served us such a delicious supper.

Events planned for Sturgeon Seniors

A Senior Citizens supper will be held on Thursday, July 25 at the Morinville Recreation Centre, commencing at 6:30 p.m. All Senior Citizens are welcome to an evening of entertainment, refreshments and dancing. A group of Seniors from St. Albert, Ontario will be attending, as they will arrive July 25 in Morinville.

Tickets must be purchased on or before July 20 for this evening from the following people in your area.

Gibbons - Mrs. E. Mabbutt; Calahoo - Mrs. B. Groppe; Namao - Mr. H. Cresswell; Morinville - Mrs. D. Daignault; Legal - Mrs. Houle at the Senior Citizens Home Villeneuve - Mrs. R. Oulmet and Mrs. M. Verstraete

Plan to come and spend an enjoyable evening.

NORTHERN TOUR PLANNED

A one week trip is planned for July 29 - August 3, available to all Senior Citizens 60 years and over. This year's tour shall be arranged on the same basis as last year. We will charge a fee that will cover the costs of accommodations, transportation and admission fees. People interested in taking part shall be responsible for their meals and personal expenses. This year's proposed trip will be visiting the following: Whitecourt, Valleyview, Grande Prairie, Pouce Coupe, Dawson Creek, Taylor, Fort St. John, Hudson Hope, Chetwynd, Kinuso, Monkman Falls, Grande Prairie. Highlights of this trip would be Alaska Highway, Mile Zero Post, Mackenzie Monument, W.A.C. Bennett Dam and River Trip

This trip is operated on a non-profit first come first serve basis.

For further information on either of these events, please contact Marjolaine Chamberland at 256-3317 or 256-3318.

Alcomdale 4H club wins reserve champ

By Arlene Arlow

Despite the meat packers' lockout, this year's 4H calves at the Edmonton Regional Show and Sale sold for better-than-ever prices. Local merchants such as Macleod Morinville store, bought the Alcomdale Reserve Champion for 61¢. Other purchasers for the club were: Falls Farm Equipment, Dan Brennels, Butt's Auto Body, CJD Implements, Farm and Ranch Realtors, Irvin Klapstein and Danny Aberhart.

Alcomdale Champion won Edmonton Reserve Champion, and Safeway purchased the animal for $1.05. Safeway purchased two other calves. Other purchasers were Weiler and Williams, Burns Woodwards, Galners and Canada Packers.

The average price per calf was 57.2¢. The Alcomdale Beef Club members would like to thank all of the buyers who purchased from our club and wish you good eating in the months ahead.

Brochu - Calder Wedding

St. John Baptiste Church in Morinville was the scene of a very pretty double ring ceremony on Saturday, June 29 when Dolores, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Calder of Morinville exchanged wedding vows with Albert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Brochu of St. Albert. Rev. Father Primeau officiated, with Denis Chalfoux as organist and Rachel Bulger as soloist.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride was lovely in her traditional white gown of polyester crepe featuring an empire waist, full length sleeves and a full train. The bride's chapel veil was secured by a rhinestone clip, and she carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses with stephanotis.

Bridesmaids Doreen Calder (sister of the bride) and Debbie Gray (cousin of the bride) wore identical gowns in pale blue polyester crepe which featured empire waist and dainty short, puffed sleeves. The young ladies wore white lace floppy hats and carried bouquets of daisies and stephanotis in blue and white.

Attending the groom were Lorne and Dale Brochu, brother and cousin of the groom.

Following the signing of the register the happy couple returned down the aisle to the strains of "Come Sing a Song of Joy."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Calder chose a floor length gown of blue polyester knit featuring a long sleeved jacket with mandarin collar. White accessories and a corsage of pink roses completed her ensemble.

Mother of the groom, Mrs. Brochu, wore a full length floral gown enhanced by white accessories and pink roses en corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception for some 100 guests was held in the Morinville Recreation Centre. The groom's brother, David Brochu, was master of ceremonies while the toast to the bride was presented by Gary Robinson (cousin of the bride).

A very special guest at the wedding was Mrs. Barb Partridge (nee Calder) of Lincoln, England. Also attending were the Godparents of both bride and groom - Mr. and Mrs. Max Dzenick, and Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Hunking, all of Edmonton.

Other out of town guests were from Calgary, Drumheller, Ottawa, and Mackenzie, B.C.

Congratulatory telegrams were received from Lincoln, England and from Calgary and Grande Prairie. A dance and midnight lunch was held for 300 guests, with music supplied by the Satellites.

For her going away outfit Dolores (Dolly) chose a bright yellow pant suit complimented by a gardenia corsage.

Following their honeymoon trip to the Okanagan the newlyweds will take up residence in Edmonton where both Dolly and Albert are employed.

Gibbons

By Shirley Steinwand

Visiting friends and relatives in Gibbons are Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sprague and family of Fort Nelson, B.C. Mr. and Mrs. Sprague had planned a holiday through Jasper and Banff, before coming to Gibbons. However, due to a car accident, in which their car received extensive damage, they were unable to continue with their trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Pelletier and family spent a few days visiting Pat and Rene Sprague at Fort Nelson.

A good crowd turned up for the Gibbons July 1st Sports Day to make the day a great success.

The Lions Club, the Sunday School Circle, Community Centre Board members and many individuals worked on the program and took part in the ball games and parade.

The Sports Day started off at 10 a.m. with a parade, led by Heather Fernly, snow ball queen, Morinville Drum and Bugle Band came next, followed by a float made by leaders and brownies of the 1st Gibbons Brownie Pack. Gibbons Hotel Indians float came next, decorated bikes, and Senior Citizens, dressed in Klondike clothes. The 4H Light Horse Club were very impressive, to end the parade. Winners were - 1st

Calahoo WI welcomes visitors

By Liz McLeod

The 152nd meeting of Calahoo Women's Institute was held on Tuesday, June 25 at 8:30 p.m. in Mrs. John Thatcher's lovely home, which was a perfect setting, with such a well kept yard, to bring our visitors, newcomers in the district, for a get-acquainted meeting.

Pres. Mrs. V. Albrecht had a unique way of getting to know each other, by taking some thread and then each in turn, as they wound it around their finger, told their name - birthplace and date - married - number of children - work - career etc. etc.

We have now made our acquaintance with Mrs. Ramona Dennis, Mrs. F. Isabel Wheatley, Mrs. K. Mary Jones, Mrs. Lynne Finnigan, Mrs. D. Aline Roddick, Mrs. H. Nancy Christen and Baby

Maxine and other guests were Helen Radjo, Dina Groppe, Clara Loyer and Joyce Bergstrelser.

John Thatcher and Ken were glad to have Roy Schmermund, Vic Albrecht, Fred Brown, Ferdinand Lischewski, John Groppe, Myles Kerr and Carl and Henry Bergstrelser come along for a friendly visit.

This was quite a night for Addie's grandson from California, Christopher Wylie, as he had his cousin Scott Thatcher, Barry and Michael Schmermund and Keith Carty for company.

A short business session handled some correspondence, a letter of thanks from Joe and Melba McLeod was read thanking the WI for catering to their sale, and a letter from the Sidford Link in England. A letter came from DHE Pat Doerksen pertaining to women's property rights when married and another let folks know of Alberta Women's Week at Olds College July 23 - 27.

Members discussed what to demonstrate at Klondike Days on the afternoon of July 25. It was decided to take odd and old items and tell their age and origin and possibly demonstrate some crafts as well.

When discussing the flower and vegetable show, the date was set for August 21, a Wednesday.

Gifts were presented to two members who will be leaving the district in the near future. Elsa Lischewski who joined in March 1959 and has perfect attendance, and Madeline Brown who joined the group in January of 1971 and only missed one meeting.

Both ladies will be sorely missed. When Mrs. K. Dahlheim was at the Provincial Convention in Olds she brought back a 65th anniversary plate, commemorating Alberta's WI's and she gave the group a chance to receive one. Young Debbie Carty made the draw, and Cecile Berry (who was absent) was the lucky recipient.

Anyone wishing to purchase one of these plates should get their order in to the Prov. Sec. Treas. Kay McMillan very soon while they are still $1.50. Later they go up to $2.00.

The Roll Call of "Wear a Wild Rose" was answered by all members - some making real corsages.

The door prize was brought by Alice Schmermund and won by Madeline Brown.

The game of trying to open a many wrapped parcel with a fork and knife wearing oven mitts and donning a hat and scarf was played, causing a bit of fun with Margaret Douglas, a visitor, Mary Jones and Liz McLeod being able to keep the contents since they did the final opening. Each contestant was clocked at 1/2 minute.

During the delightful luncheon hour followed Mrs. Aline Roddick expressed her wish to join the Institute which we were so thrilled with, since we'll be losing two members so now have gained one back.

We hope other visitors will consider joining also.

After summer holidays the WI meet again September 24

Members, remember Klondike Days, July 25 and the Horticulture Show August 21, in the off-season.

Happy Holidays to one and all.

Three families honored at farewell

By Liz McLeod

June 23 dawned bright and clear after the good shower of rain the night before, making a perfect setting for the open house held in Calahoo's Church basement to honour Ferdinand and Elsa Lischewski, Fred and Madeline Brown and Paul and Sandra Majeau who will be leaving this district.

A fancy glass bowl was used to allow all present, (around 60) an opportunity to wish them well. Lovely pink corsages, made by Laura Boddez, were pinned on the ladies, who incidentally, all wore blue flowered dresses making a lovely match, and a guest book for each to take home was signed by all.

The new organ that will be used on a trial basis in the church was brought downstairs and played by Mrs. Linda Person, Mrs. Sharon Nault and the salesman for church organs, Mr. Mel Gabelhauser and was a treat for all to listen to.

Francis Kramp's three daughters, Annette, Elaine and Charlotte sang "Bless This Day Oh Heavenly Mother."

Paul Majeau sang "Jamaica Farewell," and before Mr. Art Soetaert made the presentations, his brother George Soetaert sang "The Wheel of the Wagon is Broken." Each family in turn said their thank-you's.

The Lischewski's who have resided here for 43 years are retiring to live in Stony Plain.

The Brown's will be leaving to make their home in St. Albert after 27 years, and the Paul Majeau's will be going to Rossington, after eight years in Calahoo.

This happy community outing was climaxed by all singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows."

Many thanks go to those who mopped up the basement floor and to all who helped make this day possible and to Sharon Nault who spearheaded proceedings.

It was gratifying to see St. Catherine's Parish, the Calahoo Women's Institute and the community work hand in hand.

Legal students visit Peace River

On Wednesday morning, May 28th the grade seven class of Legal left for a five day trip to the Peace River country. About one o'clock we stopped for lunch at a camp along the highway. We ate lunches we had brought from home. Then we set out for Girouxville, which we reached at about 3:20. Mr. Tremblay and Mr. Ste. Andre assigned us to homes. We went to the homes as if we were friends sleeping over from school. Most of the kids went to town to visit the museum and watch a baseball game.

The next morning we went to school with a lunch made by the parents. We got back on our bus and set out for the W.A.C. Bennett Dam in British Columbia. We stopped in Dawson Creek where our picture was taken for the local newspaper and we stocked up with food. Some guys bought souvenirs, candles, film and other items. About noon we stopped for lunch in a park in Dawson Creek. After that it was almost sold bus time. We stopped for gas and a few took pictures but that was about it until we got to the dam.

While we waited for our tour Mr. Champagne drove the bus across the dam. It was a breathtaking site. Many of us took pictures. Then we had a guided tour and a film on the construction of the dam.

When we went down 15 floors in the elevator we saw the powerhouse and rooms with other interesting things needed for the dam. We saw the turbines and the water rushing out through the deep tunnels. We were at the very mouth of the mighty Peace River.

After the dam the group travelled to Hudson Hope where we had supper. That night we slept in Fort St. John's elementary school gym. The floor was hard and cold but we managed to shut our eyes.

Our breakfast of beans, bread and tomato juice also served as lunch since we had it at 11:30. As we drove on we noticed many beautiful sceneries. Around 2:30 we arrived at Dunvegan Mission Park. The girls made a stew while the boys pitched the tents. After the stew and a couple cans of spaghetti we went out to climb the very very high hill behind the camp. It was real steep and about 10 people made it to the top. Mr. Tremblay wasn't one of them. Dunvegan bridge which is half a mile long was our next objective. We crossed on foot after visiting the museum and the old church.

That night we were crowded into tents with the excursions of a few kids who used the bus and Mr. Tremblay who slept outside.

Saturday morning after a great breakfast we got on the bus and we headed for Peace River (town). When we got there we stocked up again with pop, candles, film and souvenirs.

After a lunch in Rotary Park we gassed up. During those few minutes a couple of pictures were taken of the statue of "12 foot Davis." Then the bus brought us halfway up the Peace River hill and we climbed the rest of the way. At this point we were expert climbers. We took pictures and read the plaque on "12 Foot Davis' Grave." Then most of us had a refreshing swim in the town's swimming pool. We then visited a large dairy farm and its elevator.

From there we travelled to St. Isidore where we had a winter roast and some sports or we just sat around. At about 9:30, the bus brought us to the homes where we were to sleep for the night.

Sunday morning we were picked up by the bus and taken to mass in Girouxville. Most of us were so tired, that we could hardly stay awake. After mass we visited the museum and the honey factory as a group. We had our lunch in the bus, which was parked by the church or in the church park beside it. Most of us had taken snapshots of the tiny church and other interesting things. Others visited the cemetery.

Bear 2:30, we left for home. We stopped once for gas and another time for supper in a roadside camp. After getting more gas in Westlock we reached home at last. We drove around town singing at the top of our lungs to let them know that we were back. At Mr. Champagne's we unloaded and our parents brought us home except for some town kids.

It was a great experience and we are all very grateful to the school board, Mr. and Mrs. R. Tremblay and Mr. and Mrs. Real Champagne, our parents and Mr. Keane. We hope others will have such an opportunity in the coming years. Thank you, the Grade VII class.

Summer camp for Legal boys opened

By Richard Charrois

On June 30, more than 30 families and 25 boys travelled to Bayview Beach in Plamondon for the grand opening of the Knights of the Altar Chalet called "Bona-Vista."

The afternoon was enjoyed by all in boating, fishing, swimming and eating. The lucky winners of the fish derby were Pat Quaghebeur with the biggest perch and Yvon DeChamplain with the 6 lb. Jackfish.

At five o'clock, Father Tangay surrounded by about a hundred people from Legal, blessed the Chalet and declared it opened for the summer.

"The boys of Legal are very fortunate to have their own summer resort for spending days in the beautiful nature of God," said Father Tangay.

We are very pleased to see the interest of all the parents and friends in our project and we want to thank them for it. The Knights of the Altar want to assure all the parishioners of Legal that they are always welcome in their "Bona-Vista Chalet."

Raymond Tremblay, in the name of the Parish Council praised the work of Father Bissonnette and thanked him for his devotedness towards the boys of the Parish.

After a remarkable day, everyone was happy in returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Bergevin have sold their property and are now occupying a suite at Mrs. St. Martin's.

Senior citizens surprise matron on retirement

By Lucienne Montpelt

The Senior Citizens of the Chateau Sturgeon held a surprise farewell party for their amiable matron Mrs. Arthur Leguerrier on June 23.

Being called to come to the Chateau immediately for some emergency she begged her husband to hurry, but being aware of the so called emergency he drove calmly to the home. Upon her arrival in the recreation room, she was stunned and shocked to see everyone, that she was choked up and at a loss for words.

Due to power failure the evening was spent in candlelight.

Employed at the Chateau for 12 years, four years as a cook and eight years as matron, Mrs. Leguerrier at 68 years decided she would retire and stay home to look after her understanding husband.

In 1966 Mrs. Leguerrier replaced Mrs. Jellman who was the first matron when the Chateau opened in 1962.

Mrs. Leguerrier possessed all the qualities of a good matron, she was jovial, patient, understanding, with a good sense of humor, being a mother to every resident. Residing in Legal since 1928, she says these 12 years were full of new experiences good and not so good, but I've enjoyed working for and with the Seniors Citizens.

Mrs. Leguerrier stated that 84 persons have passed away at the Chateau during her 12 years of employment. The evening was full of surprises, the Provincial family orchestra from Vimy provided the toe tapping music, Mrs. Houle read the address and Mrs. Maurice who has been a resident since 1962 presented her with a lovely chrome tray on behalf of all the citizens, with all their names engraved in the tray, making it a memorable souvenir.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Leguerrier on the occasion of a surprise party tendered Mrs. Leguerrier by the residents of Chateau Sturgeon on her retirement as matron.

The Board presented the guest of honor with a beautiful bouquet of flowers.

With well chosen words Mrs. Leguerrier thanked everyone for their thoughtfulness, especially those who organized that fulfilled evening in her honor. She expressed her regrets upon leaving but promised to come back and visit with them. She wished good luck to the new appointed matron, Mrs. Lea Pelletier.

Prior to that evening the staff and part time employees met at the home of Mrs. Marion Rouillon and presented their matron with a gold back rocker in appreciation for her kindness towards them as employees. We wish you both many years of continued health and happiness.

ZONING BYLAW #66

Third and Final reading of the New Zoning Bylaw will take place at the next regular meeting of Council to be held - Monday, July 15, 1974.

Comments and criticism of the Zoning Map are invited. These will be received at the Village office from the present until Saturday, July 13, 1974.

The proposed map may be seen at the office any day except Sunday between 9 a.m. and 12 noon. A limited number of copies are also available to interested persons.

Jean Chabut,
Secretary.

St. Martin family reunion honours original pioneers on 75th Anniversary

Members of the immediate family of Joseph St. Martin, who were able to be present at the family reunion of the occasion of the 75th anniversary of the arrival in Legal of Joseph's parents: Ben St. Martin, Marguerite (St. Martin) Baert, Lucien St. Martin, Bernadette (St. Martin) Vaugeols and Leon St. Martin.

Over 100 members of the St. Martin family gathered in Legal over the July 1st weekend for a reunion and celebration marking the 75th anniversary of the arrival of the first St. Martins at the homestead in March of 1899. Official hostess for the occasion was the second daughter of Mr. Leon St. Martin, Mrs. Marcel (Lorraine) Kremer.

A barbecue was held at the farm Saturday evening when family members from Quebec, Fort St. John, Nainimo, Calgary, Clyde, Whitecourt, Grande Prairie, Edmonton, Sherwood Park and St. Albert had a wonderful time getting reacquainted and catching up on family news.

At a special mass Sunday morning Father Bissonnette recognized the pioneer family to the life of the Legal community. In his thoughtful and moving remarks he spoke of the meaning of freedom, so precious to the early settlers, and wondered if the pace of living now has robbed Canadians of the freedom of time to visit neighbors and enjoy them, as they did in pioneer days.

A banquet for 110 members of the family was held in the community hall Sunday evening when Marcel Kremer was master of ceremonies and grace was said by Robert Dupont of Edmonton, great grandson of Marguerite St. Martin. Pauline Vaugeols, daughter of Mrs. Maurice Vaugeols, (nee Bernadette St. Martin), gave an account of the history of the family, on which she has done considerable research. "These ancestors," she said, "who so courageously adapted their lives to this country, who made sacrifices and refused to give up, have left us a heritage to be proud of, and from this heritage we have been inspired to follow challenges and adventures."

"Regardless of the language we speak, where we live, what type of work we do, we are all descendants of exceptional pioneers," she concluded. "It is to be hoped that we honour this heritage with deference and take pride in belonging to this wonderful family."

Donald Vaugeols and his friends entertained with their band during the evening.

The story of the St. Martins in Legal goes back to Montpellier, near Marseilles in southern France in the year 1887 when a couple made the big decision to emigrate to Argentina. Jean Calage, a widower with four children and his second wife, Marguerite Faux, who was the widow of Jean St. Martin, I, and had two sons, Jean and Joseph St. Martin, settled on a farm near Buenos Aires which was to be their home for 10 years. During this time four children were born, and life was made very difficult by a series of bad years, with poor crops and hordes of grasshoppers. They were persuaded by Canadian missionaries to emigrate once more - to Canada, leaving behind the two oldest children of Jean Calage, Pierre and Leontine, who had both married. Lucien, oldest child of the second marriage, died in South America.

The couple and their other eight children journeyed by boat to New York, where all were vaccinated for small pox, and then by train to the territories. Due to infection from the vaccination one girl suffered a severely scarred arm, one became deaf and one was to die.

After the trek north the family were harboured in Strathcona House in what is now South Edmonton, where all immigrants were cleared for the area. Here they were befriended by Mr. Mathias Steffes, a German immigrant who had a smattering of French, for the family from Argentina spoke only Spanish and French. He assisted them with procuring provisions and information.

In later February of that year, 1899, Jean Calage and his stepson Joseph St. Martin, walked north some 45 miles where new homesteads were available. They were accompanied by August Tieulle, passing through St. Albert mission and the Morinville settlement. They chose their farms in what was to become Legal area, where there was only one other homestead, that of Theodore Gelot and Eugene Menard. The family was brought from Strathcona House to stay with Menard's while the immediate pressing need for shelter was looked after. A sod and log cabin was constructed, half of it underground for warmth and protection. There was still ice on the river when this rude shelter was built, and little Josephine was ill.

A picture of incredible hardship emerges for the present descendants of those determined and brave pioneers as they turned to work, a lonely little band on a vast expanse of prairie to getting that first and all important crop and garden in. Their great grandparents, Jean Calage and his wife Marguerite (St. Martin) had the responsibility for the 10 people in the sod shack: Jean and Joseph St. Martin, children of Marguerite's first marriage; Eugene, a widow with her daughter Josephine, and Martha, daughters of Jean's first marriage, and Berthe, Marie Jeanne and Josephine, children of their own marriage.

In May, Josephine Calage died and services were held in St. Jean Baptiste Church in Morinville, where she was interred. Joseph St. Martin and Marthe Calage, whose marriage had been pledged by their parents, both got jobs at Youville Home and worked there until Joseph had enough money for a horse and Marthe had enough to buy a cow. With these valuable assets the couple could start, and they were married in 1902 by a visiting missionary priest in Legal.

A English family came to homestead nearby and while they spoke no French and the Calages and St. Martins spoke no English, they were wonderful neighbors, never failing to stop for a visit while passing each other's homes, and never failing to offer a helping hand when needed.

When Joseph and Marthe began to raise a family, Joseph sent over to France for teachers to come and instruct his children, whom he was determined would receive an education in the sparsely settled new land.

Over the years the community grew and one Monseigneur Legal visited the area for baptisms, church and funeral services and ministry to the pioneer settlers. He would become Bishop Legal and the village would take his name.

The homestead remained in Joseph St. Martin family, passing first to his son Leon and then to Leon's son Jacques, who is farming it presently. None of the original buildings are left, however. Leon served his community as mayor and his brother Ben was postmaster for many years. They were the only two of the family who have continued to make their home in Legal.

Eleven children were born to Joseph and Marthe St. Martin and it was they and their families who met together 75 years after the beginnings of the family's life in Legal to honour the brave immigrants who built a new life which brought new opportunities and challenges for their descendants.

They were Marie Marguerite (Mrs. Jules Baert), who has six children, six grandchildren and three great grandchildren and lives in Edmonton; Jean-Baptiste who married Kathleen Stack and has six children, 23 grandchildren and three great grandchildren, and who died in 1966; Marie Antoinette (Mrs. Albert Lachance) of Edmonton who has four children and nine grandchildren; Lucien, who married June Labine and has six children and 18 grandchildren and lives in Edmonton; Louis, who married Eglantine Sequin and has three children and eight grandchildren, in Edmonton; Marie Rose who died in 1942, not married; Leon, who married Ethel Wickey and has five children and 13 grandchildren and lives in Legal; Benoit, married to Marie-Ange Meunier, with five children and in Legal; Bernadette (Mrs. Maurice Vaugeols) with eight children and nine grandchildren, in St. Albert; and Blanche (Mrs. Elphege Bedard) who has eight children and 11 grandchildren and lives in Abbotsford, B.C. The 11th child, Marie Ange, died as an infant.

Joseph's brother Jean St. Martin returned to France. His widowed step sister Eugenie married Edmond Vallée of Beaumont, and from this union came four children, 24 grandchildren and 32 great grandchildren. Berthe Calage married Benoit Baert and settled in Vimy, having six children, six grandchildren and three great grandchildren. The two remaining members of the original 10 in the sod shack were Marie Jeanne who had no children and Josephine who died at age three.

If Jean and Marguerite Calage could have looked on at the happy gathering of their family three-quarters of a century after they staked their virgin homestead in the territories, they would have learned that from the sacrifice, hardships and the vision they brought to the little sod shack, with its 10 inhabitants, families numbering 222 persons have grown and prospered. Men and women who continue to build strong family ties, hold to their faith and work to give their children opportunities and challenges, much wider than their great grandparents could have imagined.

Fete Au Village plans shaping up

By Lucienne Montpetit

The people of Legal are still showing their community spirit in the preparation of their annual festivities "Fete Au Village."

This year's celebration promises to be bigger and better. To make sure the Fete au Village celebrants start the festival on a full stomach, a street breakfast will get things underway Saturday morning.

Then its off to see the gigantic parade which is expected to be the most colorful yet.

Anyone wishing to put an entry in the parade should contact Marcel Dube at 598-3694 or 598-3951 as soon as possible.

A luncheon will be held at the Community Hall for the VIP's immediately after the parade.

The beer gardens will open at 11 a.m., and the Starlites will provide the entertainment in the afternoon with a pancake eating contest at 3 p.m. in the Arena.

Get in shape, start practicing your jigging and enter the jigging contest to be held on the Sunday afternoon on the bandshell.

To make sure no one goes hungry the Tea Room will serve cold plates, shortcake, coffee, tea etc. The Pancake House will again delight guests with their french cuisine.

The main booth caters to everyone, and a barbecue will be held both evenings starting at 5 p.m.

The midway will be in operation both days. The $1,000 ball tournament which always proves to be a favorite attraction will begin on Saturday morning with finals Sunday evening.

The Cabaret Saturday evening will feature the Satellites.

Come and meet your friends, enjoy yourself, bring your family to Legal's Fete au Village July 27-28.

Premier announces assistance for community halls

A $3.5 million program to renovate and restore community halls throughout the province was unveiled yesterday during the northeast cabinet tour by Premier

Father Jan students receive awards

Approximately 50 students of Father Jan Junior High School received awards during the awards program held on June 13.

The guest speaker for the occasion was Mr. V. J. Maloney and Mr. J. S. Kaminski acted as master of ceremonies.

The following students received awards:

General Proficiency Awards presented by Mr. V. J. Maloney - Grade 8: Randy Craig, Kathy Rothermel, Michelle Cruse, Kristie Gusikoski, Barbara Kathol, Jennie Messier, Tim Ficko, Grade 9: Ron Meleshko, Grant Simpson, Allison Bell Kelly Shaughnessy, Tammie Osborne.

There were quite a number of parents in attendance, an estimated 75, and they were entertained following the program at a coffee and cake party while the students enjoyed a lively dance. The band which played at the dance was Privilege.

Peter Lougheed.

Under the one year only program, community organizations in any city, town, village, municipal or improvement district in Alberta may apply for up to $2,000 for upgrading of community centres.

Premier Lougheed said the program is intended to meet needs not already met by recreational capital grants, which are in excess of $3 million annually and nearly $1,100,000 annually in agricultural society grants.

It will, he said, have a marked effect on the quality and appearance of community halls in large and small centres throughout Alberta. The program allows for the renovation of existing facilities and conversion of suitable buildings into community centres. Community organizations will be able to apply for funds to cover costs of either materials or labour. Premier also said the grants will apply to newly constructed community halls. Associations may apply for funds to cover furnishing and equipment for these new centres.

In making the announcement Premier Lougheed commended the many volunteers who contribute so much to making their community centre a focal point of the area in which they live.

For further information about the program contact Ernie Jamison, MLA for St. Albert constituency at 459-3852 or 458-2240.

Alberta explains your 1974 property tax reduction plan.

Albertans now pay lower residential property taxes. Due to your Government's oil and gas revenue policies the ENTIRE PROVINCIAL EDUCATION TAX HAS BEEN REMOVED FROM YOUR TAX BILL. In most cases, the reduction is automatic through your local taxing authority and the reduction amount is shown on your property tax bill.

1 2 3 4

1 AUTOMATIC REMOVAL OF TAXES:

All classes of residential property are covered by the reduction, including family farmlands and mobile homes. In the case of most residential property, this reduction is automatic. Look at your tax bill for the reduction amount you have received.

2 MINIMUM BENEFITS:

The Alberta Property Tax Reduction Plan allows for minimum benefits as follows:

$100 (or the total property tax, whichever is less) for Albertans under 65:

If the automatic tax reduction shown on your tax bill is less than $100 you probably qualify for an additional benefit payment from the Province. Just apply on the form supplied.

$200 (or the total property tax, whichever is less) for senior citizen Albertans receiving the Guaranteed Income Supplement:

If the automatic reduction shown on your tax bill is less than $200, you probably qualify for an additional benefit payment from the Province. Just apply on the form supplied.

If you own a mobile home and pay municipal taxes (usually as a licence fee paid to your municipality) you will receive the same kind of benefit as all other residential property owners. The tax reduction for licenced mobile homes will be available from your municipality as a rebate of Provincial Education Tax already paid or as a reduction in the amount of future licence fees. See your municipality for details.

3 FAMILY FARMLAND BENEFITS:

If you are an Alberta resident and own family farmland in Alberta, you will receive the same benefit on your farmland as other residential property owners. Just apply on the form supplied.

4 SENIOR CITIZENS' BENEFITS: (Age 65 and over).

OWNERS — If you are a senior citizen and own residential property, you receive the same benefit as other residential property owners. If you receive the Guaranteed Income Supplement and your reduction is less than $200 you are probably eligible for additional benefits. (Read #2 "Minimum Benefits").

RENTERS — If you are a senior citizen and rent residential accommodation (including rooms in senior citizens' lodges) you may claim a $100 benefit immediately. Application forms for these benefits are available at any Treasury Branch, Treasury Sub-Branch, your municipal office, or any office of the Department of Municipal Affairs, or write: The Department of Municipal Affairs, 10363 - 108 Street, Edmonton, Alberta, T5J 1L8. Residents of nursing homes and auxiliary or regular hospitals have already automatically received this benefit and need not apply.
